

RESEARCH PROJECT Distributional Impact Assessment

The project, funded by the European Commission, aims to ascertain the use of Distributional Impact Assessment tools in the budgeting process of the EU Member States. The project is coordinated by the University of Milan (Department of Economics, Management and Quantitative Methods) and FBK-IRVAPP is responsible for the data collection procedure. Prof. Carlo Fiorio is responsible of the scientific methodology.

For more information about the project, please visit the project's website at: <https://irvapp.fbk.eu/projects/detail/study-on-distributional-impact-assessment>.

INFORMATION ON PERSONAL DATA PROCESSING

Pursuant to art. 13 of EU Regulation No. 2016/679 (GDPR), and in general in observance of the principle of transparency set forth in the above Regulation, we herewith provide the following information regarding the processing of personal data.

1. PURPOSE OF THE PROCESSING

Your personal data is processed within the scope of the Distributional Impact Assessment Project and for the following purposes:

- scientific research purposes;
- document the event for research purposes: the information collected will be used only for the drafting of the report and it won't be released to any third parties;
- facilitate the transcription of the interviews.

2. LEGAL BASIS FOR DATA PROCESSING

The legal basis for the processing is the performance of the Project to which the data subject is party. The legitimacy to the processing of data derives from the fact that it is necessary for you to be part of the project. Refusal to provide such information will make it impossible for you to participate.

As regards the personal data indicated below with letter b), the legal basis for the processing is the explicit consent given in order to be recorded during the interview. Given consent is optional, but refusal will make it more difficult for the researchers to conduct the study. In order not to be filmed you can always disable the webcam.

3. TYPE OF DATA PROCESSED

The following data categories may be processed for the Projects management purposes:

- Personal particulars such as: name, email address, role/profession;
- Data revealing the person's image and voice (recordings).

4. PROCESSING METHOD

Your personal data shall be processed:

- through interview held via online tools (e.g., Google meet, Microsoft teams);
- manually and through automated means;
- by individuals authorized to perform such tasks;
- by using proper measures to ensure confidentiality and avoid access by non-authorized third parties;
- in contexts that do not compromise the personal dignity and the decorum of the person concerned, ensuring the necessary precautions to guarantee the confidentiality of the use.

No automated decision-making process, nor any profiling activity is planned.

5. PROCESSING RETENTION

The personal data collected shall be retained for no longer than is necessary for managing the event activities and for fulfilling the contractual and legal obligations, with gradual cancellation of data related to specific purposes once they are no longer pursued.

Video-photographic recordings will be deleted after the transcription and, in any case, no later than the end of the project.

6. DATA SHARING

Personal data shall not be communicated and/or disseminated, besides for research purposes.

For exclusive of scientific dissemination of statistical and/or scientific results (for example through the publication of scientific articles and/or the creation of databases, also with open access methods, participation in conferences, etc.), the data may be disclosed anonymous and aggregate and always in a way that does not make the interested party identifiable.

7. PLACE OF DATA PROCESSING

The personal data shall be processed within the European Union, or through automated means and IT tools that involve the processing in countries for which the Commission has taken a decision on the adequacy of the protection of personal data.

8. RIGHTS OF THE PERSON CONCERNED

Pursuant to Section III of the GDPR, you shall be entitled to exercise the following rights to:

- request access to your personal data and to obtain a copy thereof;
- if the legal conditions exist, oppose the processing of your data, request their cancellation or exercise the right of limitation;
- withdraw at any time any consent given to the processing of personal data and such withdrawal will result in the end of treatment;
- if you deem them inaccurate or incomplete, request their correction or integration respectively;
- ask for the portability of your personal data to another subject in such a format that they can be easily consulted and used;
- advance a dispute to the Supervisory Authority (Privacy Authority).

For specific information and contacts regarding the protection of personal data, including the exercise of the rights referred above, please send an e-mail to the researcher/national expert in charge of the interview or to the Project coordinator (vergolini@fbk.eu).
